PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: State of Arizona versus Robert Coronado CR20124652-002.

MS. DENT: Jennifer Dent on behalf of C.E.S 2 for the State.

MS. BERRY: Bobbi Berry for Robert Coronado. He's present. He's in custody seated right here, Judge.

THE COURT: Hi, Mr. Coronado. We have a status conference set for today. How are we proceeding?

MS. BERRY: Your Honor, we're going to go ahead and set a pretrial conference. I'm looking at the week of April 15th. We also need to make a Donald record today.

THE COURT: I usually make that at the pretrial conference.

MS. BERRY: That's my preference.

MS. DENT: The issue is it's in the case evaluation unit, and a plea will not be available at the pretrial conversation, because at that point, it will be with a trial attorney. So if he changes his mind during the time, it's an issue.

MS. BERRY: Judge, what I'm willing to put on the record right now is that I've discussed that the plea is likely not to be available at the pretrial

1 conference, but that's the probability, and he
2 understands that. He's willing to take his chances.
3 It's still our preference to make the Donald record at
4 the pretrial conference.

5 THE COURT: Okay. We'll make it at the
6 pretrial conference. We'll show that this matter will
7 be set for a pretrial conference on April the 15th at 8 9:00 o'clock. We'll also set a Donald record for the 9 same time. I will order that a joint pretrial statement
10 also be submitted at the time of the pretrial
11 conference.

12 MS. BERRY: Judge, I'm sorry. I'm supposed
13 to be in a different court on that morning. Is there
14 any way we can do it the next morning?

15 THE COURT: The 16th, sure.

16 MS. BERRY: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Pretrial conference on the 16th
18 at 9:00.
